

PM Senior Specialist

Job Overview

A dedicated Project Management Specialist in business development in the medical device.

Main Responsibilities

- Lead product introduction projects with a multi-disciplinary teams of highly skilled experts.
- Plan and manage all aspects of the project life cycle (design, engineering, tech transfer, validation, launch, scale-up).
- Establish and maintain appropriate structures to ensure communication, flow of information and documentation within the project.
- Responsible for project deliverable, schedule, cost and quality as well as reporting directly to relevant stakeholders within the organization.
- Cross-functional role with strong interaction with various departments, internal stakeholders, suppliers and customers.
- Ensuring effective implementation of requirements enabling fast ramp up of production and benefit realization.

Required Skills & Qualifications

- Degree in Business, Engineering or Applied Sciences.
- Relevant industry experience in product development, NPI, industrialization, scale-up and high-volume production.
- Project management experience in highly complex areas with numerous stakeholders; proficient in corresponding PM methodologies and tools.
- Experience in one or more of the following areas: GMP production / medical device quality systems (i.e. ISO13485, GMP, FDA CFR21) / supply chain management / contract manufacturing.
- Combination product experience is an asset.
- Six Sigma experience preferred.
- Strong intercultural and interdisciplinary communication skills; excellent written and verbal English.
- Experience in international collaboration programs and good at building professional networks
- Able to work under pressure to achieve short-term targets without compromising long-term objectives.
- Capable of handling communication and cooperation with stakeholders over distance.